Dear Mr. Nguyen:

This is in response to your request dated 4 September 2025 and received by the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 5 September 2025. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you are requesting, "Emails and/or photographs and/or slideshows and/or reports and/or technical drawings concerning the event which three space telescope optical systems has been declassified and offered to NASA in 2011."

We have processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended. We performed a thorough search of our records and databases, and located no NRO-originated records responsive to your request.

Requesters have the right to appeal any denial determinations upon receipt of a final response. Appeals must be submitted in writing and be postmarked or transmitted within 90 calendar days after the date of the final response. The appeal should clearly identify the agency determination that is being appealed, the assigned request number, and an explanation for the basis for your appeal.

You may seek dispute resolutions from either the NRO FOIA Appellate Authority or from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) of the National Archives and Records Administration. OGIS was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. Please refer to the OGIS public web page at www.archives.gov/ogis for additional information.
